

Marx in Soho

Howard Zinn's classic one-person play with Brian Jones

Saturday,
June 25 @ 7pm

Experimental Station
(6100 S. Blackstone Ave in Hyde Park)

Sunday,
June 26 @ 1pm

Lifeline Theatre
(6912 N. Glenwood Ave in Rogers Park)

about the play:

Marx is back! The premise of this witty and insightful "play on history" is that Karl Marx has agitated with the authorities of the afterlife for a chance to clear his name. Through a bureaucratic error, though, Marx is sent to Soho in New York, rather than his old stomping ground in London, to make his case.

Howard Zinn, best known for his book, 'A Peoples History of the United States', introduces us to Marx's wife, Jenny, his children, the anarchist Mikhail Bakunin, and a host of other characters.

Brian Jones, an African American actor and activist, has been performing this engaging one-man show across the country since 1999.

Marx in Soho is a brilliant introduction to Marx's life, his analysis of society, and his passion for radical change. Zinn also shows how Marx's ideas are relevant in today's world.

Purchase tickets online at eventbrite.com

suggested minimum donation $20
$10 for students w/ID

for info, email
marxinsohochicago2011@gmail